Spears and her fiance checked into one of the resort's 3,100-square-foot mega-suites designed by famed designer Jonathon Adler. The two-bedroom suite features a stunning red Murano glass chandelier in the entryway as well as a full dining room, living room and Jacuzzi tub, and has breathtaking views of Paris Hotel's Eiffel Tower.

After settling in, the couple went down to Planet Hollywood's Strip House Steakhouse, where they celebrated with a custom-made cake created especially for them by the resort's pastry chef. Spears and Trawick then headed over to Paris Las Vegas, where they dined at Sugar Factory American Brasserie, and ended the evening celebrating Trawick's 40th birthday at Chateau Nightclub.
