

Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino Celebrates 25 Years of Fun with Penn & Teller, Chippendales and more
Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino hosted a 25th anniversary event at VooDoo Rooftop Nightclub with cake, champagne and headliners

LAS VEGAS (Jan. 15, 2015)– Rio All-Suite Hotel & Casino celebrated its silver anniversary with a festive reception yesterday overlooking the Las Vegas skyline at VooDoo Rooftop Nightclub, complete with a giant cake modeled after the iconic red and blue hotel, champagne, headliners Penn & Teller, Chippendales dancers and a newly-crowned Rio Rita.

“The Rio has been an iconic figure in Las Vegas now for 25 years,” said General Manager Dan Walsh. “What has really made this place special over the years has been our impressive amenities; our restaurants; our employees—we have 75 day one employees; and our entertainers, Penn & Teller have been with us for 14 years and Chippendales for 13 years. We couldn’t be more proud of the team we have assembled; this team has created the loyalty we have from our out-of-town visitors and local guests. The Rio remains one of the most popular properties in town and I am proud to be a part of it.”

Picking up where Walsh left off, Penn Jillette led a toast by saying, “We did our first show in Las Vegas 22 years ago tonight, and we played a lot of dumps until we got to the Rio in 2001, where we now have continued to perform in the conveniently named Penn & Teller Theater for the past 14 years and we hope to do at least 14 more if they’ll have us. Here’s to my favorite hotel in town, the Rio!”
