As a multi-media entertainment mogul, Reba has become a household name with a successful career that spans across music, television, film, theater and retail in addition to becoming the flagship artist on Nash Icon Records, an innovative new joint venture label between Big Machine Label Group and Cumulus. Her first release on the label, LOVE SOMEBODY scored a two-week run atop the Billboard Top Country Albums chart while the lead single "Going Out Like That" scored the biggest sales debut of Reba's career. Holding the record for the most Top Country Albums #1s among women and being only the second artist to have a chart-topping album in each of the last four decades, this marks Reba's twelfth summit. She has achieved a rare pinnacle with 35 #1 singles and over 56 million albums sold worldwide, all garnering her a spot in the upper echelon of #1 albums in the Country genre. The Country Music Hall of Fame and Hollywood Bowl inductee has won 15 American Music Awards, 13 ACM Awards, nine People's Choice Awards, seven CMA Awards and two GRAMMY Awards, in addition to an ACM Career Achievement Honor and 50th Anniversary Milestone Award for Most Awarded ACM Female Vocalist Of The Year as well as the first-ever American Country Countdown NASH Icon Award and the National Artistic Achievement Award from the U.S. Congress. The Oklahoma native is also an acclaimed actress with 11 movie credits to her name, made her Broadway debut in Annie Get Your Gun and starred in the six-season eponymous sitcom Reba. Partnering with retailer Dillard's, Reba's lifestyle brand is celebrating 10 years and features clothing, shoes, home goods, luggage and more. For tour dates and more, visit Reba.com.

Superstar duo Brooks & Dunn released their first album in 1991, a blockbuster that delivered four #1 singles – the first of 23 chart-toppers in a career that's seen Kix Brooks and Ronnie Dunn become the best-selling duo in country music history. Hits like "Boot Scootin' Boogie," "My Maria," "Only in America," and "Believe" have propelled Brooks & Dunn to more than 30 million albums sold, as the duo has amassed more than 80 industry awards, including two GRAMMY awards, 20 Country Music Association trophies, and 27 Academy of Country Music honors, making them the most-awarded act in ACM history. Named Entertainer of the Year four times collectively by the ACM and CMA, Brooks & Dunn consistently remained among country's most popular touring acts, a testament both to their showmanship and to their status as one of the true bedrock artists of country music.
