The LINQ Hotel & Casino's $223 million renovation marks the completion of The LINQ complex (the LINQ Promenade, the High Roller and the LINQ Hotel & Casino) and marks the last component of an approximately $1 billion investment by Caesars Entertainment Corporation to redevelop the Eastside of Las Vegas Boulevard. Located at the heart of Center Strip, the all-new LINQ complex has become the new social hub of Las Vegas, offering brand new modern and playful rooms and suites and more than 30 restaurants, bars and retail outlets, all steps away from the world's tallest observation wheel, the High Roller.

"The reimagined, all-new LINQ Hotel & Casino is truly a Vegas Original, offering for the first time an experience at the heart of the Las Vegas Strip designed for millennials and the young at heart," said Tariq Shaukat, Chief Commercial Officer of Caesars Entertainment. "The resort caters to those seeking authentic tech-savvy social experiences that can't be found anywhere else in Las Vegas, and provides guests with direct access to the great restaurants, shops, and entertainment available at The LINQ Promenade, including the High Roller."

All-New Social & Tech-Savvy Resort

The guest arrival experience at The LINQ Hotel & Casino centers on technology and convenience offering both an automated valet retrieval system and an automated check-in process. Whether you text to check-in or pick up your keys from conveniently located kiosks, The LINQ Hotel offers the latest in self-check in and touchscreen interaction for guests to make bookings for dining and entertainment. Free Wi-Fi is available throughout the resort including all guest rooms and through the resort corridor offering the ability to stay seamlessly connected through social devices and computers. Guests can book reservations online at www.TheLINQ.com or by calling 855-891-6863.

Rooms & Suites

The LINQ Hotel offers an assortment of guest rooms starting at $89 per night. All rooms feature a fresh, modern design with floor to ceiling windows, boasting views of the iconic Las Vegas Strip or the High Roller, the world's tallest observation wheel. The centerpiece of all room designs are three distinct accent wall backdrops featuring stylized renderings of vintage Las Vegas signage, providing guests with a unique experience each time they visit the hotel. The social experience of the LINQ Hotel extends into the rooms with a board game menu and fun mirror decals where guests are encouraged to post their favorite selfies with #linqstyle.

The LINQ Hotel offers a chance to be at the pool all day long with Deluxe Poolside Cabana rooms which are standard appointed guest rooms with the addition of private patios complete with outdoor sectional seating and LCD TV with direct access to The LINQ Pool. Picture it like your own day club experience while you and your guests soak up the sun with waitress service from the nearby pool bar. Guests of the cabana rooms also have the added luxury of checking-in through VIP check-in.

The LINQ Hotel & Casino offers two distinct Penthouse Suites, designed as a millennial retreat with simplified palates, almost as if the room had an Instagram filter applied to it. Both spanning more than 1,000 square-feet, the Penthouse Suite offers sleek, modern furnishings, eclectic artwork and pops of bright colors. Each urban loft-inspired suite features a large living room, powder bath, kitchenette with microwave drawer and full-size refrigerator, bar with seating for four, dining room table for six, and a king bedroom with dual vanity bathroom complete with rain shower, microfiber robes and slippers. The penthouse includes Bose® speakers, record players with a cool selection of vinyl records and in-room board games like glow-in-the-dark chess to keep you and your closest friends entertained for hours.

"The LINQ Hotel & Casino is a complete renovation of the guest experience," said Bob Morse, President of Hospitality for Caesars Entertainment. "Every guest room, social space, retail corridor and casino floor is purposely designed to create something unique to Las Vegas."

Offering a wide variety of amenities to fill your Vegas wish list, The LINQ Hotel & Casino includes the all-new Spa at The LINQ, the LINQ Pool, unique attractions, shopping, bars and both al fresco and traditional dining. Some of the resort's top attractions for guests include:

The LINQ Pool provides a cooling escape with spectacular views of the High Roller observation wheel and the LINQ Promenade. This center-strip destination features two pools, a 32-seat center bar lined with four flat-screen televisions and full of signature cocktails, draught beer, frozen drinks and poolside dining options from Nook Express. The main pool boasts a wet deck with lily pad daybeds available for rent, while the second pool is accessed from a standalone elevated deck. The LINQ Pool is 21 and over and hosts free weekly and monthly events such as "Night Swim" every Friday and Saturday night from 8 p.m. to midnight featuring live bands and DJs. "Champagne Sundays" pool parties are the perfect way to end the week. Starting at 11 a.m., guests of the pool can enjoy buy one, get one 750ml bottles of Veuve and Moet champagne. The LINQ Pool's Recovery Zone is an indoor air-conditioned space featuring five flat screen TVs, two pool tables, a foosball table, shuffleboard as well as an outdoor elevated deck overlooking the LINQ Promenade offering additional outdoor sectional seating, beer pong tables and corn hole.
