LAS VEGAS (June 14, 2016) - With 50 years of celebrations on the Las Vegas Strip, the "Summer of Caesars" will blast-off on Sunday, July 3 at 9 p.m. (based on weather) with a colossal 13½ minute fireworks display set directly above the iconic hotel's newly reimagined Julius Tower. While fireworks will light up the sky, a weekend long block party is planned, to thank the Las Vegas Community and visitors for supporting Caesars Palace during the last 50 years.

The Roman Plaza and Spanish Steps directly in front of Caesars Palace will be transformed for the massive block party which will feature live music, signature cocktails, life size games, patriotic decorations, homemade BBQ specials and more from noon to midnight beginning Friday, July 1 through Sunday, July 3.
